THE PERRY AREA SESQUICENTENNIAL – AUGUST 4TH – 7TH, 2016

In 2016, Perry, Missouri will celebrate its 150th anniversary with a grand sesquicentennial celebration. The sesquicentennial celebration will be held August 4th – 7th, 2016 at the Bill Trower Memorial Park on Main Street in Perry. This grand celebration will feature great food, musical entertainment, pageants, a car show, antique show, kid's area, dances, adult games, beer garden, a large parade and much more.

For miles around, people will want to come to Perry to enjoy the sesquicentennial celebration. Now is our time to showcase one of the nicest small towns in Midwest, Perry, Missouri.

This grand celebration cannot be accomplished without the support from businesses and individuals like you. On the attached sheet, you will find multiple gift levels to provide support to the Perry Area Sesquicentennial. Please consider a gift to support this once in a lifetime event.

Your gift to the Perry Area Sesquicentennial celebration is tax deductible. All proceeds from the event will be donated to the Perry Community Building fund.

Help us showcase Perry on this special occasion. We thank you for your support!

Sincerely,

Ron Leake
